

Donkey Riding

FROM THE WAREHAM WHALERS SONG BOOK

Wuz ye ever in Quebec,
Launchin' timber on the deck,
Where ye'd break yer bleedin' neck,
Ridin' on a donkey?

Way, hay, and away we go!
Donkey ridin', donkey ridin'
Way, hay an' away we go!
Oh, ridin' on a donkey!

Wuz ye ever in Timbuktoo,
Where the gals are black an' blue,
Where they waggle their bustles at you,
Ridin' on a donkey?

Wuz ye ever in Vallipo,
Where them gals put on a show,
Waggle an' wriggle wid a roll 'n' go,
Ridin' on a donkey?

Wuz ye ever down Mobile Bay,
Screwin' cotton all the day,
A dollar an' a half is a white man's pay,
Ridin' on a donkey?

Wuz ye ever in Canton,
Where the men wear pigtails long,
An' the gals play hong-ki-kong,
Ridin' on a donkey?

Wuz ye ever in London town,
Where the gals they do come down,
To see a king in a golden crown,
Ridin' on a donkey?
